DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hirota et al (US 4,364,098). As per claims 1 and 5, Hirota et al shows in figures 1 and 2 for example a rotary head drum apparatus including at least two heads oppositely disposed at two positions different by 180° on a rotary drum. Figure 4 shows a switch positioned on the rotary drum and connected to the heads for selecting one of the two heads. In column 4, lines 52-62 Hirota et al discloses a switch thereby forming a circuit with the selected head and the short-circuiting another head. Figure 3 also shows a rotary transformer of one channel for transferring signals of the selected head. The rotary transformer has a rotor side winding divided into two winding portions that are opposite to the two heads. As per claims 2 and 6, the two heads of Hirota et al are reproducing heads. As per claims 3 and 7, Hirota et al shows in figure 3 and 4 that the rotary transformer has another rotor side winding divided into two winding portions that are opposite to the two recording heads. As per claims 4 and 8, Hirota et al discloses in column 3, lines 59-65 the two heads are recording heads.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
